

EARTH ART HEART  presents

Transforming Fear Into Voices For Change

An Eco-Spirituality Wisdom Retreat
Offered by Creation Spirituality Communities

Friday, February 16, 5pm to Monday, February 19 at 2pm

at the Ukiah United Methodist Church, 270 N. Pine St., Ukiah, CA

- This retreat will offer you connection, support, renewal, encouragement and empowerment for yourself, our communities
- Together we will explore Earth wisdom and tools for understanding the nature of growth and change using Creation Spirituality and the transformative process of living systems.
- We will build inner resilience and become agents of positive change in the midst of our broken culture. This retreat will compel us to lead lives of spiritual inquiry, creativity, and prophetic action as our sacred work in the world.

$150 registration fee
$125 early registration by February 2

- Three Lunches and Three Dinners are included.
- Housing is not included in the registration fee.
- Some rooms in homes of community members will be available.
- If you need housing accommodations, please contact us by February 2
- A limited number of work partial-scholarships will be available – must register by February 2
- Scholarships are available for North Bay Fire Survivors.

To register, email Paula at revpbishop@comcast.net or call 925-785-1631

- Creation Spirituality is a movement, popularized by Matthew Fox, that integrates the wisdom of indigenous, Eastern, and Western spirituality with the revelations of modern science to awaken mysticism, revitalize our culture and promote social and ecological justice.
- Creation Spirituality Communities include people from many spiritual traditions, cultures, races, sexual identities, and ages.
- 'Creation Spirituality Communities Inc.' is a network of individuals and communities who believe in the value of living within the community of earth that deepens our reverence for life, participates in the creativity of the cosmos, and develops our passion for justice and human transformation.
